The young lady who waved her hand-kerchief at our "devil" last Sunday will kerchief at our "devil" last Sunday will confer a favor on us by not doing so any more. The young imp is nearly crazy. He has spoiled two rollers, pied a column of type, upset the ink keg, shied the "shooting-stick" at the foreman's head, and written her name on every blank sheet of paper he could find, besides continually singing.

"Come where my love lies dreaming," But owing to his extreme modesty we do not think he will venture where his "love hes dreaming.
